2018 VALLEJO COIN SHOW REMINDED

The Forty-Sixth (46th) Annual Vallejo Coin Show, sponsored by the Vallejo (California) Coin Club, remains scheduled for the First Sunday, May 6, 2018. The venue will again be the Florence Douglas Senior Center, 333 Amador, between Georgia and Florida, in Vallejo, California. Admission and parking are FREE.

“Thanks to the continued support and assistance of the Florence Douglas Senior Center and its staff, our Society’s annual Show returns to its traditional first Sunday in May date for 2018,” reported Edwin T. Hoffmark, Jr., the Society’s current President.

“The Senior Center provides our Show the entire Center, including kitchen facilities and small meeting rooms. The Center again welcomes our Show, which is convenient to two major street arteries, plus it has ample free parking plus convenient access,” he added.

Bourse Applications are now available. The Bourse Coordinator is Edwin T. Hoffmark, Jr., and he may be reached at 707-642-8754 or vallejocoinclub@gmail.com.

The Show would continue with its other established activities: information and youth tables, drawings, Boy Scout Coin Collecting Merit Badge program, and an on-site luncheon service.

The Vallejo Coin Club meets monthly, on the First Wednesdays at 6:30 PM, at the Florence Douglas Senior Center, 333 Amador, between Georgia and Florida, in Vallejo, California. Enter via the rear of the Center, facing the bocce courts. Meetings are open to coin hobbyists of all interests and ages and include occasional guest speakers, Show ‘Tells, Door Prizes, and other activities. The Society holds membership in the American Numismatic Association (ANA), California State Numismatic Association (CSNA), and the Northern California Numismatic Association (NCNA).
